FRIDAY, MAY 31, 1745.

Recd of a Private Letter from Frankfort, dated May 31, 1745.

I have been in your Debt for some Time past for Intelligence, I will keep my Times better for the future; and, perhaps too, make them in rounder Sums, since this City is become, as it were, the Center of political Commerce; and the Affairs of most Nations are, at least, as known here, as at Home. The Foreign Ministers that have resorted hither on the Score of Election, meet frequently, and confer together; and what passes in such Conferences, cannot be secret; tho', at the same time, the Particulars which pass at such Conferences, are more curious, more instructive, and more entertaining, than Advices that can be obtain'd by other Methods.

I give you a few Instances: It was said, rather Day, that the King of Poland receiv'd a Letter in reference to the Mediation of Sublime Porte; but, upon Enquiry, it appear'd, it was a Letter from the Grand Vizir only, to the point de B. relative indeed to the Mediation, but which is not likely to produce any great Effects. The Prussian Majesty had not receiv'd some Epistle of the like Kind? To which it was answer'd by his Minister, That the Thing was impossible, because his Majesty entertain'd no Correspondence with the Turks, nor was any ways maintain'd a Correspondence with the declar'd Enemy of the Christian Faith. Which extraordinary Delicacy of his Prussian Majesty's Conscience, surpris'd most of the Politicians extremely, and inclines them to believe, will be as much averfe to the Mediation of the Emperor, as to that of the Czarsina.

The Austrian Ministers talk in a very high Tone of the Prince, and as if they had him at their Mercy; saying, that at the very most, only one District of Media will be left him whenever he is so lucky as to obtain Peace; yet our Advices from that Country do not seem to speak him in such Distress; and if we may credit the Relations that fall from indifferent Persons, he has not hitherto suffer'd exceedingly from the Arms of the Insurgents. Those who are best vers'd in these Matters, seem to be Opinion, that either this language of the Austrians is calculated to conceal a Treachery, or else is very wrong plac'd; since it can only serve to irritate that Prince, and keep him firm to his Engagements with France, even against his Will; which, at this juncture, is the sole Circumstance that can preserve any Remains of her Influence in Germany.

We have, for many Years, consider'd Prince William of Hesse Cassel, as one of the ablest Statesmen in the Empire; but with all his Parts, and all his Knowledge of the World, he appears, at present, greatly embarrassed. He caus'd lately a Memorial to be put into the Hands of Mr. Vincen, who is charg'd with the Affairs of France, which contain'd the Reasons that induc'd him to recall the Hessian Troops out of Germany; and they were chiefly these, that the French had not performed their general Engagements, as contracting Parties, in the Treaty of Frankfort; and that they had absolutely broke thro' their particular Conventions with the Elector of Bavaria and Landgrave of Hesse. The Proceedings of the Austrians towards those Troops, since they were recall'd, gives him new Cause of Uneasiness; since, after breaking with France to recover those Troops, their Credit is like to be for ever stain'd, by their being forc'd to lay down their Arms; so that he has lost a Friend, without gaining an Enemy.

But the most extraordinary Piece of News I have to write you, is the secret History of the Prince of Conti's coming hither; by which, I mean, his being entrusted with the Command of the French Army in Germany. We knew, long ago, that this was neither his own seeking, nor much the Inclination of the Court; but we never knew, till lately, that both were forc'd upon it by a Letter from the Queen of Spain to the Most Christian King, in which she positively insist'd, that he should not be sent any more into Italy, for Reasons contain'd in a Memorial sent to the Prince of Campo Florido; and which has given great Offence to the whole House of Conde, who insist'd, that as his Serene Highness had behav'd so well last Year, he should, at least, command somewhere this Campaign, and not be absolutely laid aside, in Consequence of that Princess's Pique against him. We make no sort of Doubt here, that the present will be the last Campaign the Two Crowns will make, either here or in Italy; and we are assur'd that the Court of France, on the first News of any Overtures of Peace made by Spain to Great Britain, will send full Powers to M. Belisle to put-bid her for a separate Peace.

HOME PORTS.

Bristol, May 28. Arriv'd the Duke of Cumberland, Hasting, from Virginia.

Portsmouth, May 29. Yesterday came into this Harbour the Grand Turk Privateer, of 32 Carriage Guns, and 270 Men; taken by his Majesty's Ship Captain, Capt. Griffin, off the Caskets, on the 16th Instant; and at a Distance saw the Monmouth Man of War then engaged with another Privateer, supposed to be of the same Force with this taken.

Dover, May 29. Wind S. W. This Morning early a laden Collier was boarded near Sandgate Castle, by a small open Boat, with Nine Men, belonging to Boulogne, who were carrying her away to France; when the Duke's Tender being informed of it, soon came up with her, and has brought them both here. This Boat was formerly a Hovelling Boat belonging to this Place, and was stole away from our Beach by some French Prisoners, who made their Escape to France in her.

Deal, May 29. Wind S. W. Remains his Majesty's Ships Duke, Yarmouth, Folwey, Gloucester, and Portland, and the Outward-bound as per list; with the Four Brothers, Serjeant, for Hastings.

LONDON.

They write from Florence, that, in Consequence of three secret Conventions for different Terms, which are now all expired, a perpetual offensive and defensive Alliance has been concluded between the Crown of Spain and the Republick of Genoa; which was sign'd on the 20th of April, and will shortly be made publick.

We learn from Hanover, that a Man has been lately burnt alive at Sels, being convicted as an Incendiary. He had, it seems, twice set that Town on Fire, by which many of its Inhabitants were reduced to extreme Misery.

They write from Berlin, that the Marquis de Valori, Minister from France, had an Audience of his Prussian Majesty on the 18th of May, at Neils, in which he was very graciously received; and parted the next Day, in all Appearance, extremely well satisfied.

We learn by private Letters from the Hague, that the Garrison that march'd out of the Town, into the Citadel of Tournay, consist'd of 11 Battalions, and three Squadrons, making in all upwards of 7000 Men.

The same Letters say, that the Magazine of Powder which blew up there, had in it 60,000 Weight of that Commodity; that a great Part of the Fortifications were ruin'd by that Accident; and Part of the Regiment of Patot buried under them. It is believ'd this was the Effects of Treachery, because the Director of the Sluices disappear'd the same Night, after having render'd them useless.

We hear from Exeter, by a Letter dated the 16th Inst. that a few Days before was executed there a Commission of Ideocy upon a young Lady near that Place, worth upwards of 40,000 l. The Jury found, and return'd her of an Unsound Mind, so as not to have a Capacity sufficient to manage her Affairs; which, it seems, will be consider'd in Law as Lunacy.

Last Night, and not before, Sir William Stanhope, Knight of the Bath, and Brother to the Earl of Chesterfield, was married to Miss Crowley, Daughter of the late Sir Ambrose Crowley, at Lady Crowley's House in Privy-Garden.

Yesterday his Grace the Duke of Richmond, one of the Lords of the Regency, set out for his Seat at Goodwood in Sussex.

The same Day his Grace the Duke of Argyle set out from his House in Marlborough-street, for his Seat in Scotland.

Yesterday in the Afternoon a Fire happen'd at Mr. Aston's, a Soap-boiler's in Carnaby Market, occasioned by a Piece of Timber in the Chimney, which burnt thro' into the next House; but by timely Assistance, was extinguish'd without spreading any farther.

Yesterday the Sessions began at the Old Baily, when 24 Prisoners were tried, Two of whom were Caprally Convict'd; viz. Benjamin Stevens, a Shoe-maker, for the Murder of his Wife, by stabbing her in the Bread with his Cutting Knife. And John Simmons, for being at large in Great Britain before the Expiration of the Term of Seven Years, for which he was order'd to be transported, at Abington Assizes, about Three Years ago.

Thirteen were cast for Transportation: And Nine Acquitted.

Simmons was committed by the Name of Burgess, for assaulting and wounding some of the Watchmen of Portoken Ward.

THE Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty do hereby strictly direct such of the Petty-Officers and Foremastmen, late belonging to his Majesty's Ship Hastings, who have not already enter'd on board his Majesty's Ship the Scarborough, to repair immediately on board his Majesty's Ship Prince George, at Blackfries, on pain, not only of losing the Remainder of their Wages for the Hastings, but of being apprehended by the Marshal of the Admiralty, and tried at a Court Martial as Deserters.

JOHN HOPKINS, Goldsmith, at the Golden Cup in Fleetstreet, near Fleet Bridge.

Name Hopkins under (as in the Margin)

WHO, to prevent the Deceits and Impositions the most Wary are liable to in the Goldsmiths Way, from Publick Sales, Auctions, &c. (a shocking Forebode of the Destruction of Trade in general, and worthy therefore an Assent of the Legislature) have for more than Fifteen Years past, made this his principal and chief Business to deal in Second-Hand Plate, Watches, Jewels, &c. and still continues to do, strictly observing the Methode he first begun with, of selling at the most reasonable Prices.

And the continual Call he has for large Quantities of various Sorts of Second-Hand Plate, &c. gives him an Opportunity of affording most Money for the same; as does the extraordinary Care he takes in employing the most experienced and best Workmen, enable him to serve with Neatness Plate, Watches, Jewels, &c. to the greatest Satisfaction.

Certainly nothing can be a clearer Proof of the Excellency of any Commodity, than the Approbation it meets with in the World.

THE ENGLISH GRAPE BRAND may justly claim a Superiority over all other Productions, from the constant and large Demands the Company have from all Parts of the Kingdom.

To convince the Curious how fitly it is adapted to all Manner of Mixtures, there is now prepared a large Quantity of Sarsaparilla with the said BRAND, and ORANGE when in greatest Perfection; which is no Ways inferior (either for Taste, or for Purge) to that made with the best Coniac. It is sold at 6 s. per Gallon, Brand at 4 s. per Gallon. At the Warehouse the Bottom of Bartholomew-Lane, near the Royal Exchange.

Singence per Gallon allow'd to those who take half a pe in Lead, or upwards.

so good; and after I have destroyed them if any should happen the following Year to be brought in by People's Curiosity other Houses, which may happen in new Furniture, or in to those that I have cured and cleaned, which is owing to the Quality and Nature of what is used, then, and in such Cases

I promise to cure them gratis; and those that are desirous to agree for any Number of Years, may, at a small yearly Rent depend on having their Furniture kept sweet and clean from them. Therefore, those that are pestered with them, will be

SCHWANBERG'S LIQUID-SWISS

To be DEFENDED upon in the GRAVEL and STONE.

THE Rev. Dr. HALES, and others, have demonstrated by various Experiments That the depend upon the SALTS of Lime in the Alkaline Soaps, or calcin'd Shells; but its enormous Dose renders it so that it is almost impossible to take it in a manner sufficient to answer any good End. This, then, will tell in such Cases Persons who are afflicted with the GRAVEL and STONE, that M. SCHWANBERG, a learned and ingenious Gentleman, has verified in the most abstruse Operations of Chymistry, the method of Liquifying calcin'd Shells, so as to become limpid Rock-water, yet not corrosive. They give almost immediate Relief in the most violent Pains of the GRAVEL; and, if persisted in, will, in time, bid fair for dissolving a Stone in Urinary Passages, when too large to pass off otherwise. It may be depended on in the Wind-Colic, and all kinds of tenderness; and, where an Alcali is wanting, will answer the End. A Child may take them in the Month, for Gripes, Fever, and Uneasinesses, which Children are subject to, by Acidities, the known Cause of most of their Disorders.

* It is remarkable, That those who take them for Stones, have a Sediment in their Urine resembling Chalk: Now, that this Sediment is a Portion of the Stone dissolv'd, is evident from an Experiment in the Power one to make; for, put an human Stone, form'd in the Passages, into a Vial of the Liquid-Swiss, and it will gradually dissolve into a White Powder, exactly resembling that of the Urine of Persons who take it as a Medicine for the Stone; and this in an Heat not greater than that of the Body, yet the same time, not in the least affect an human Hair put therein; and, which surprisingly will, upon the Addition of an Acid be instantly converted into a Snow-white Powder.

To be had of the Proprietor W. Baker, a Surgeon in Court, near Katherine Street in the Strand, out by his Appoyment, of R. Lee, Stationer, under the Sign of the jeants Inn in Fleet Street; and of John Newbery, at the Golden Ball in Castle Alley, near the Royal Exchange, London;
